Greetings:

It is always a pleasure to have visitors on our campus and today we are happy to have two groups with us. We are privileged to honor the parents of our students on Parents' Day once each year and give them a chance to know more about their college and meet the people with whom their sons and daughters live and work.

Band Day is a day to which we look forward with anticipation each year and it is a pleasure to have the bands from 40 high schools as our guests. I hope that the 1,900 visiting band members have enjoyed their visit to our campus.

On behalf of the faculty, staff, and students of Fort Hays State, I want to extend to each and every one of you a very cordial welcome to this game between Colorado College and Fort Hays State. I hope you have enjoyed the day thus far, and I hope these teams give us some wonderful sports entertainment to climax an enjoyable day of association together.

Come back to the campus often; you are always welcome.

M. C. Cunningham
President

Welcome, Colorado

by Norris "Scooter" Hale
Sports Publicity Director

It will be Tigers vs. Tigers in tonight's contest as Fort Hays State and Colorado College are both called by the same zoological appellation.

Coach Jerry Carle's Coloradoans will display a razzle-dazzle style of play featuring a potent aerial attack. The visitors are unbeaten in two starts while Coach Wayne McConnell's Bengal gridders dropped their opener to Kearney, Nebr., State 7-35 but came back to beat Maryville, Mo., State 13-0 last Saturday.

Colorado won last year's game 22-20 when tackle George Grant booted a last-quarter field goal to provide the margin of victory. Chuck Vernon, Darrell Hildebrand, and Ron Leonard had hit pay dirt for the Fort Hays State eleven. The Rocky Mountain lads hold a 7-1 edge in the victory column in the series that began in 1942.

The only Fort Hays State win over the Coloradoans came in 1951 when Don Campbell, Gene Hess, and Alan Feist engineered a 14-13 upset for Coach "Red" Huffman's team.

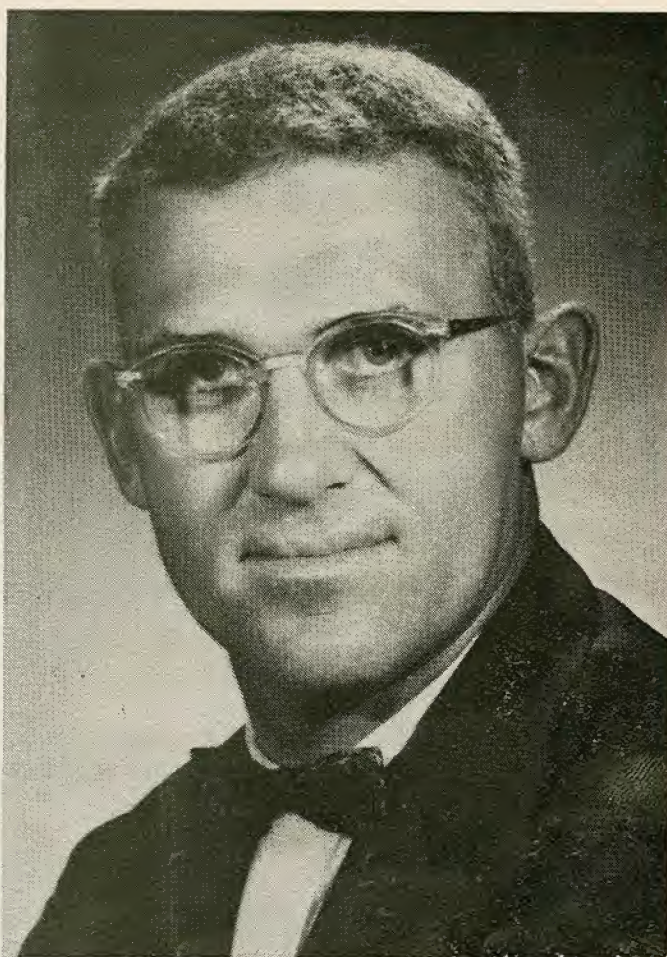

Game history:

1942—Colorado, 13-0
1946—Colorado, 15-0
1947—Colorado, 19-7
1949—Colorado, 19-7

1950—Colorado, 32-0
1951—Fort Hays State, 14-13
1952—Colorado, 49-0

"You take out their left guard; you take out their left tackle, and I'll take out their drum majorette!"

The Fort Hays State Marching "100" Band, under the direction of Harold G. Palmer, during a half-time performance.

Fort Hays State Band Day

Fort Hays State Band Day originated in 1948 through the leadership of Harold G. Palmer and since that time it has grown into a musical extravaganza. Leland Bartholomew, assistant professor of music at Fort Hays State, assumed the directorship of the event four years ago.

This year there are 1,900 musicians representing 40 Kansas High Schools. This entire group participated in a one-mile parade down Main Street of Hays this afternoon and they are seated in the West Stadium of Lewis Field for tonight's game.

The famous Fort Hays State "Marching 100" will present an interesting half-time performance that is based on books used in our everyday lives. Included in the program are "Kentucky Babe," "Just a Song at Twilight," "That's Where My Money Goes," and "Farewell to Thee."

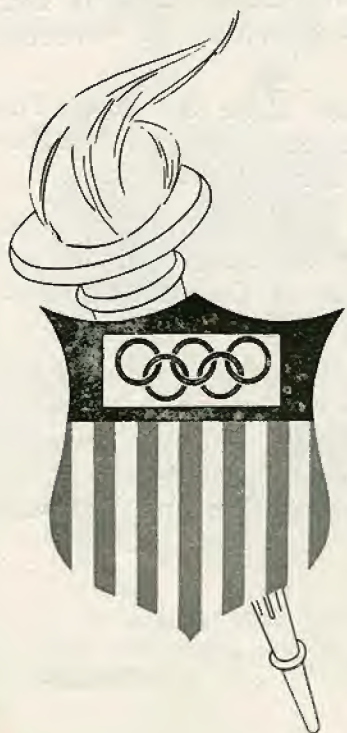

Harold Palmer
Director, "Marching 100"

The latter portion of the program will be devoted to a twirling exhibition by Miss Sharon Trautman, who has been recognized as one of the Nation's leading twirlers. She was formerly a twirling instructor at the High Plains Music Camp and was head twirler of the Ramette Twirling Corps of San Angelo, Texas.
